

NEWS AND CROSS IN THE DAY IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

GET SECOND GAME BY NEAT TRICK

Patten and Donovan Display Strategy.

WADDELL IS IN GREAT FORM

Struck Out Ten Men in Five Innings. Won and Lost by 3 to 2.

After a disastrous Western trip, the Senators returned home yesterday, opened the final series of the season in a double-header with the Athletics and broke even with the Philadelphia. The Athletics won the first by 3 to 2, and the Senators copped the second by the same score.

The Senators apparently had the first cinched, but an unlooked-for batting rally in the eighth and ninth innings enabled Connie Mack's men to win out. Rube Waddell was in his best form, and threatened for a while to establish the season's strike-out record, but was fathomed by the local in the last few innings. Rube fanned ten batters in five innings, and had he kept on at that rate he would easily have surpassed his own record of sixteen.

The second game was won by the Senators by strategy. Case Patten and Patsy Donovan furnished the tricks of the game. With two out Patten kicked, and bunt out of reach, and got to first, and Donovan made it his business to get mixed up with Schreck so as to prevent the catcher from getting the ball. Three runs came in, and it was all over.

PLAY DOUBLE-HEADER WITH THE ATHLETICS

Washington and the Athletics play a double-header at American League Park this afternoon. The first game began at 2 o'clock, and the second will begin fifteen minutes after the conclusion of the first. By agreement, the second game will be called at the end of the seventh inning.

NEW YORK LEADS BY SIX POINTS

Boston Must Win Three Out of Four.

PLAY IN BEANTOWN TODAY

Highlanders Outplayed Champions and Deserved Victory—Chesbro Was Steadier Than Gibson.

New York and Boston opened the last series of the season to determine the championship of the American League at New York yesterday, and the Highlanders won by 3 to 2, and took the lead. They now hold six points advantage over the Beaneaters. Four games yet remain to be played. Two of these take place in Boston this afternoon. The first began at 2 o'clock. Dineen and Young will pitch for Boston, and Powell and either Griffith or Putnam will twirl for New York. The final game will be played on Monday at New York.

To win the pennant Boston must win three of the four games remaining, while an even break will float the bunting in New York.

Boston Outplayed.
In yesterday's game Boston lost because it was outplayed. The game put by Griffith's men was snappier and in every way superior to the exhibition given by Collins' men. Jack Chesbro, the premier twirler of America, pitched for New York, and Gibson shot them over the head. Both did excellent work, but Chesbro was just a trifle steadier at critical moments.

Y. M. C. A. WILL HAVE TWO GAMES TONIGHT
An indoor baseball game and a basketball game will be played in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium tonight, the sport beginning at 8 o'clock.

The indoor basketball teams will line-up as follows:
Chinamen—R. Coleman, catcher; Pierston, pitcher; Tracy, first base; Bryan, second base; Tate, third base; Quantrell, left shortstop; White, right shortstop; Woodhead, left field; Tanner, right field.

The basketball teams will line-up as follows:

RAISING JUMPERS FOR RACING GAME

Day of Failures on Flat Is Passing.

VIRGINIA LEADS THE WAY

Making a Specialty of Training Young Horses Especially for Steeplechases. Entries for Pimlico.

Virginia is gradually becoming to steeplechasing in America what Ireland is England in the cross-country game. Heretofore it has been the custom to take big strong horses that were not successful on the flat and send them over the jumps. Virginia has started a reform by training horses for the turf exclusively. When only two years old the youngsters have been reared in Virginia, producer of many of the greatest leppers in the country, are trained especially for fencing.

Raised in Old Virginia.
Many of the best horses in the country are products of Virginia, including old Plato, winner of the Great National Champion Stakes; Joe Letter, Dion Kerr's great lepper, which ended his brilliant career at Pimlico by crashing into the fence and tearing a huge rent in his side, from which he died a few hours later; White Gars, the famous jumping mare that was ever saddled; Ochiltree, Tentore, Sacket, and Eophone, all stake winners.

The inauguration of the jumping race exclusively for three-year-olds, which will be run at Benning on November 22, will probably serve to bring out several thoroughbreds destined to make their mark in the history of the steeplechase game. Entries to this race will close on Monday, October 10.

Washington Starts Reform.
Heretofore owners of jumpers have been chary about starting their young horses among older fields, and as a rule jumpers are not raced until they are at least four years old. The action of the Washington Jockey Club in inaugurating a race exclusively for three-year-olds is apt to start a reform in racing, and it is not improbable that the other members of the Jockey Club will develop a similar idea and establish such races.

Secretary Walton, of the Washington Jockey Club, has received assurances from several Virginia breeders that they will liberally contribute entries to the new Junior Steeplechase Stakes.

Best Plan Yet.
The plan of training horses exclusively for jumping races is the best thing that can be done to improve the sport in this country and place it on the level it deserves.

Lately steeplechasing has come in for some hard knocks, and justly, too. Poor, decrepit, spavined plugs that could not feed on the flat have been trained for the game. Many of them have no proclivities for jumping, and speak as freely as a pack mule. So many plugs have fallen in races recently and endangered the lives of the riders that the public is tiring of the game.

In their palmy days the jumping races were every whit as popular as the events on the flat, and the only way to revive the public interest is to take well-bred horses and train them for the game alone. Should other horsemen follow the plan of Virginians, they would better the sport four-fold.

NEGRO BASEBALL LEAGUE IS FORMED
The second meeting of the Colored Baseball League of Washington was held at the residence of Elbert Corbett, 633 Acker Street northeast. The house was packed and several speeches were made. The league was developed from a temporary organization into a permanent one. The names of officers elected will be announced later.

The league is composed of the following teams: Eastern Empire, this year's colored champion of the District of Columbia; the Treasury Baseball team, the Howard, the Colored Americans, Columbia Athletics, East Washington Giants, the Colored Outing Club, the Lafayette Athletic Club. The next meeting will be held on October 17 at the residence of Arthur McKendree, 127 Ridge Street northwest, at 7:30 p. m.

SIX RACERS KILLED IN RAILROAD WRECK
TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 7.—As a number of horses were being shipped to winter quarters at Leipzig, on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad yesterday, the train was derailed and six horses killed and injured.

Among the killed was Bertie Girl, owned by W. H. Morehouse, of Toledo. She held the world's record as a half-mile trotter, to wit, 2:15 1/2, with Lino Bourbon. Her record was made in 1897, and she had frequently done nearly as well since.

TURNER THREW BRADLEY IN TWO OUT OF THREE
In a finish wrestling bout Wednesday night, "Kid" Bradley, bantam weight wrestler of the Washington Boys' Club, was defeated by William Turner, who gained the first and third falls. The first fall was won by a double Nelson in fifty-two seconds. Bradley gained the second fall by the use of his own strength. The third fall went to Turner in three minutes by the use of a whirlwind.

Bradley would like to meet some of the amateur bantam wrestlers of the world. Call at the Washington Boys' Club, Thirty-first and M Streets northwest.

HANDICAP BOXING AT EUREKA CLUB
BALTIMORE, Oct. 7.—Handicap boxing, in which one man gives ten pounds to his opponent, is not a common occurrence, especially in star bouts. Wednesday Tommy Daly did this and beat his opponent, Kid Williams. The next match that will take place before the Eureka Athletic Club will be on in which one man will be ten or twelve pounds heavier than his opponent.

The principals in this bout, which is on the cards for Friday night, October 14, at Germania Maennerchor, are Joe Tipman, the Rock Street prize, and Tommy Feltz, the ex-bantamweight champion. While Feltz was a bantamweight, he has grown considerably in the past year or two, and is now a full-fledged featherweight.

WESTERN OUTLOOK UNUSUALLY GOOD

Captain Church Has Good Material.

QUARTER IS THE WEAK POINT

Three Candidates for Position, But Hopes Are Based on Return of Morse.

Western High School is the scene of much activity on account of approaching high school championship football series.

Captain Church, one of last year's men, the best in Western High, and also a rather large figure on the gridiron compared with all the other high school players, has a large bunch of aspirants after football honors, and every evening, working like their lives depended upon trying to kill the scrubs. There are four of last year's men back, and with this as a nucleus, Captain Church is building up a strong and aggressive team.

Ends All Right.
Felan, one of last year's ends, is playing in his old position, as is Ravall, strong and trustworthy man. At tackle is Farrington, a large chap who, though not very aggressive, takes all the chances that come his way.

If the team is weak anywhere it is at quarter, for although there are three fairly good men trying for that position, namely, Muir, Pugin, and Gilman, all are all right, but not show good headwork at trying times. The most promising of the three is Gilman, who, under ordinary circumstances, runs the team well, but the school's hopes are centered on Morse, one of last year's halfbacks, who will play quarter if he returns.

Behind the line are some promising young players. Luttrell at fullback is always good for a few yards through the line when assisted by the brawny halfback, Church, and Munroe at left half is excellent when it comes to making long end runs. As for Church, it would be hard to find anything in the football line that he does not excel in.

The team plays together well as the result of much hard practice, and one of two new plays that Captain Church has developed will prove a pretty hard proposition for some of their opponents. Especially in that so-called formation called "right hook," when the line once gets started, is like a Western cyclone, and it is rumored that it was from one of these very cyclones that "Cartie" got his idea for this formation.

Have Played Together.
The team has played several games, the most interesting of which was one with the Georgetown Preps, which resulted in a hard battle and many bruises, but no scores. This was considered a promising outcome, as it was the first time that Western has fought to a draw with the Preps or succeeded in keeping them from scoring.

Central High School outwitted and outplayed the Georgetown Preps, and defeated them at football, on Georgetown Field yesterday afternoon, by 11 to 0.

Kent played the star game. Several times he eluded the Prep end for substantial gains, once getting thirty yards, and another time forty yards.

The line-up:
Central Positions. Preps.
Rockwell, Center. Beckel.
Carrington, R. G. G. Ward.
Scott, L. G. T. T. (Capt.)
McMormick, R. T. (Capt.)
McDonald, R. T. (Capt.)

dall and Cunningham. Goal-Kipp. Time of halves—15 minutes.

SULLIVAN VS. DALY.
Sporting Editor of The Times:
I notice by the papers where Tommy Daly is doing all of his boxing through the newspapers nowadays instead of in the ring, and nearly every day he has a challenge in for some of the featherweights.

He also continues to challenge "Kid" Sullivan, of Washington, who defeated him, and is jollying himself along with the idea if he gets another match that he can retrieve his lost laurels. I really think Daly is only bluffing, and merely challenging Sullivan because he knows well that the Washington boy is in San Francisco with Gans, and has no chance to meet him at present, and thinks it a good way to keep himself before the public. Now, if he has not seen the proposition to Daly on behalf of Sullivan, and if he is sincere in his challenge, I don't see how he can refuse it. I will make a match for Sullivan, the weight to be 125 pounds, at 3 o'clock, and the winner to take the entire purse.

He certainly cannot object to this weight for he claims he is a featherweight, and if he cannot make it, he should go out of the featherweight class and box lightweight. Another thing I mentioned where the forfeit is posted. I will not put my name on it until he does post a forfeit.

I hope you will publish this letter to let the public know that Sullivan is ready to box any featherweight in the world, and thanking you in advance, I remain, sincerely yours,
MAURICE J. HERFORD.

GRANT AND MACKEY CHALLENGE MONDAY

Both Willing to Meet Mysterious Unknown.

TURNER DEFENDS HIS CLUB

Says Matches There Have Been Clean and Scientific—Has Chance For Title.

Things are getting hot in local wrestling circles.

If Frank Huseman and his unknown are looking for trouble they are in a position to get it in bunches. Joe Grant, the middleweight champion of the South, has taken up the lengthy "den" of the unknown, and says that he will meet the mysterious stranger at any time or any place for the welter or middleweight honors. Hree is what Grant's manager has to say:

Grant's Answer.
Sporting Editor of The Times:
In reply to the challenge of "Young Monday" to wrestle Joe Grant, for the welterweight title, would say that I, his manager, am willing to match him against any man in the world, for the welter or middleweight championship, whether he be from Brooklyn or Bohemia, it matters little.

The two tournaments so far conducted by the Turner Athletic Club were promoted with the full intent of offering to the public, good, honest, clean, and scientific sport. They were attended by the better sort of business men, who thoroughly enjoyed a pleasant evening, and were perfectly satisfied with the result of each bout.

Looks to me as if "Young Monday" wants to have some cheap advertising. If he means business he knows our camping ground. H. CLAUDE TURNER, Manager for Joe Grant, and president of the Turner Athletic Club.

Mackey's Bold Words.
Sporting Editor of The Times:
I see in the columns of your paper that Young Monday, managed by Frank Huseman, has tried in vain to get a match. I am the legitimate holder of the Southern wrestling championship at the welterweight limit, 148 pounds ring-side, and as such will meet Huseman's "dark secret" to a finish at any time he wishes. I have not any hundred dollar bills, but will split the purse, 75 and 25 per cent, or winner take all.

As no other Washington wrestler has taken up Monday's challenge I offer myself as a sacrifice so that he may not go away and say that the Washington wrestlers were all afraid of him.

I have met every man from the Turk down to Frank Huseman, and am still ready to meet anybody, big or little, man or beast. Now if Young Monday wants a match he will accept my terms.
ROB ROY MACKEY.

Young Monday should have no difficulty in getting a match if he is as anxious for one as he said he was in his "defy."
